Re: Declaration

We receives a lot of complains from customers recently, about that we are registered in the British head office.

After investigate and contact with the British party, we find that the agent company of registration representative has caused a serious mistake during the operation, our company files haven't passed to the British head office and we have already revised relevant problems at once.

We has sent out a strongly reproach to this company, Please accept we apologize for the inconvenience we made.

We welcome all the customers continue to offering the valuable suggestion to us.

We must know the service quality continuing improving our company definitely.
